A Note From Pastor Andrew

Most of our Teams have met and I am happy to say with the New Year has come new excitement to develop and continue all that we do as a church. I was amazed, as I looked at all the annual reports with all we do as a church body. I was amazed at all the opportunities we have to come together for the good of CTK, and the good of the community we serve. How are you involved? How can you be? What is God calling you to here at CTK, or even in your daily life? Where does God intersect the daily routine and draw out of you the reliance of your faith? Questions I bring up for a few reasons, one- they're questions I should be asking myself every day, but somehow haven't been. Two- because when we ponder such things we find that our days become a bit brighter no matter what may be plaguing us, because we remember God is indeed in charge. God is leading us. It reminds us that there is power in trusting God to be our guide.

Where is God leading you in 2016? What new or renewed energy can you share with your church and the community? Listen for God's voice.
